

Curriculum Vitae – Areti Demosthenous

Areti Demosthenous is Director of the Institute of Historical Research for Peace (Cyprus). She specializes in religious Family Law of the Monotheistic Religions of the Middle East. She has taught at several universities, including Haifa, Munich, Shandong (China), City University of New York and Bogazici. She is an active member of the International Association for Intercultural Education (IAIE) and National Representative to the International Association for the Studies of Southeast Europe (AIESEE). She has published on religious law and intercultural understanding. She is a trainer of educators in formal and non-formal Education. She is often on Media and the YouTube.

