

Curriculum Vitae – Arniika Kuusisto

Arniika Kuusisto is Professor in Child and Youth Studies, especially Early Childhood Education and Care, at Stockholm University, Sweden. She holds Honorary Research Fellowship at the Department of Education, University of Oxford, UK, and is Research Director and Docent at the Faculty of Educational Sciences, University of Helsinki, Finland. Her research interests include individual worldviews, ontologies and value learning trajectories in childhood and youth, especially the situated meaning-making in the intersection between agency and social environment. She has also studied diversity in ECEC communities and school, worldview education in different levels, and educator professionalism. Presently, she is the PI for the Academy of Finland funded research project 'Growing up radical? The role of educational institutions in guiding young people's worldview construction' (2018-2022) which is carried out at Helsinki, Stockholm and Oxford Universities.