

Curriculum Vitae – Zekirija Sejdini

1. Main research areas

- Interreligious religious education and religious didactics
- Fundamentals of Christian-Islamic dialogue from an Islamic perspective
- Islamic religious education in Austrian schools
- Dealing with Islamic norms in Islamic religious education and religious didactics
- Koran hermeneutics
- Koran didactics

2. List of academic and professional career

- Studied at Al-Azhar University (Cairo, Egypt); Subject area: Islamic theology and Islamic philosophy
- Studied at Marmara University (Istanbul, Turkey); Subject area: Islamic Theology, Islamic Philosophy and Islamic Religious Education
- Studied at the University of Marmara (Istanbul, Turkey); Subject area: Philosophy
- Doctorate at the University of Heidelberg; Subject area: Islamic Studies, Islamic Mysticism
- 2002 - 2004 Lecturer at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences Ludwigsburg (Germany); Focus: Christian-Islamic dialogue
- 2004 - 2006: Head of department for teaching at the Islamic Religious Education Academy in Vienna
- 2006 - 2009: Specialist Inspector for Islamic Religious Education at the general education compulsory schools in Vienna
- 2009-2013
 - Head of the Education Office at the official islamic community in Austria
 - Inspector for Islamic Religious Education at elementary schools in Vienna
 - Lecturer for Islamic Religious Education at the Vienna College for education
 - Lecturer for Islamic Religious Education at the catholic college religious education in Vienna
 - Lecturer at the University of Vienna for Islamic mysticism
 - Since 01.01. 2014: Professor of Islamic Religious Education at the Department of Didactics of the School of Education / University of Innsbruck
 - Since 01.01. 2017: Head of the Institute of Islamic Theology and Religious Education at the University of Innsbruck